RELEASE DISCLOSURES AND WARNINGS

INTRODUCTION:

The Miss Rodeo Mississippi Foundation Pageant is an event organized and operated by a pending nonprofit organization, the Miss Rodeo Mississippi Foundation (hereafter referred to as "MRMF"). It is a multiple day event involving numerous activities including both pre-pageant and post-pageant events as well as the pageant itself. Your participation in this event is a voluntary activity and is subject to the rules and regulations of MRMF.

Many of the activities in which you will be involved are dangerous, hazardous and involve certain risks. AS A CONDITION TO YOUR PARTICIPATION in the Miss Rodeo Mississippi Foundation Pageant, you must carefully review this document, acknowledge your understanding thereof, and agree to assume the risks of all activities involved in the pageant by waiving all claims you might otherwise have for any injuries or damages you may suffer, even if caused by the negligence of MRMF, its employees, agents, board, insurers or volunteers.

This document shall disclose the type and nature of many of the risks and types of injuries you may incur as a result of participating in the Miss Rodeo Mississippi Foundation Pageant.

ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS:

Although many of the activities you will be asked to be involved in seem safe, there are many dangers and risks you may encounter which are too numerous to completely list. The Miss Rodeo Mississippi Pageant is a relatively high profile, competitive and exciting event. It involves long days in a row with schedules starting sometimes before seven a.m. (7:00 a.m.) and not completed until eleven p.m. (11:00 p.m.)

Aside from the interviews, rehearsals, performances, and travel between the scheduled locations, there is also a horsemanship competition on horses. Much of the time, large crowds will be present and may attempt unpredictable and aggressive behavior towards you or your competitors. In addition, the stress of a nationwide competition may have an effect on you or your co-competitors, all of which may subject you to dangerous circumstances.

WARNING:

Participation in any pageant may likely involve injury or risks of some type to either yourself or a competitor. Such injury can include direct physical and possibly crippling injury to one's body and the possibility of emotional injury experience due to stress, as a result of witnessing injury to another or as a result of experiencing pain and or injury to your own body. The severity of such injury may range from minor muscle strains, cuts, scrapes to catastrophic injury, such as complete paralysis, or even death. Such injuries can impair your general physical and mental health, your appearances and hinder your future ability to earn a living, to engage in other business, social and recreational activities and generally to enjoy life.

The entire event generally, and the horsemanship competition in particular, as well as the traveling between the various sites, are all inherently dangerous. As in all competitions, participation in the Miss Rodeo Mississippi Pageant involves many RISKS OF SERIOUS INJURY OR DEATH. Because it is a strenuous competition involving long days, traveling between numerous sites, crowds and horse riding, this event, more so than other events, involve risks of severe injury to virtually every part of the human anatomy. These risks of injury include but are not limited to, the possibility of death, neck and spinal injuries which can result in complete or partial paralysis; brain damage, eye, dental, hearing, and other head injuries; injury to the nerves, blood vessels, internal or reproductive organs; and injury to the bones, joints, ligaments, muscles, tendons, and other aspects of the musculoskeletal system. Participants are also susceptible to death or injury resulting from such cause as head injuries, internal injuries, heart failure, asthmatic attack on sickle cell crisis, congenital brain defects, and from natural causes of other congenital problems. In addition, there is the possibility of suffering emotional distress or psychological injury as a result of participating in this pageant. Common injuries sustained as a result of participation include knee injuries; strains and contusions of the thigh, calf, shoulder, arm and other muscles; shin splints, ankle injuries; shoulder injuries; back injuries, torso injuries, knee injuries, and sprains, dislocations, and fractures of the hands and wrists. Common injuries to the head and neck include contusions and muscle strains and nerve impairment. Other common types of injuries involve fractures, bruises, cuts, scrapes, sprains, strains, torn ligaments, and blisters.

Injuries can result from the correct or incorrect performance of techniques or other moves used either in horse riding or merely walking. These injuries may be caused by turning, stopping, jumping, riding and any other similar undertakings. Injury to the head or other part of the body may result in contact with other participants, animals, bystanders, fences, stairs, stages, and other solid objects in and around the area in the various sites. Injury can result from ill fitted, worn, or improper equipment, saddles, and tack. Injury can result from practice procedures, from proper or improper use of saddles and tack; from the administration of first aid; or from failing to follow any safety, training, or other rules. The use of transportation provided or arranged by MRM to and from the various scheduled events and other related activities also involve the risk of injury or death.

THE PURPOSE OF THIS WARNING is to bring to your attention the existence of potential dangers associated with participation. There is, however, always the risk of other types of injuries or the risk of injury or death resulting from other causes not specified herein.

THE PURPOSE OF THIS WARNING is also to aid you in making an informed decision as to whether you should participate in the Miss Rodeo Mississippi Foundation Pageant and, as a condition of such participation YOU MUST SIGN AN ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND RELEASE AGREEMENT. In addition, the purpose of this warning is to make you aware that as a participant it is your responsibility to learn about or inquire of MRM staff, volunteers, or other knowledgeable persons about any concerns that you may have at any time regarding your safety and the safety of others during this pageant.

I hereby certify that I have read the above Release Disclosures and Warnings, completely understand the risks involved in participation of the event and ASSUME THE RISK OF INJURY OR DEATH ASSOCIATED WITH THIS EVENT.
